THE RIGHT TO SPECULATE.

SUIT FOR HEAVY DAMAGES AGAINST THE TRADERS' EXCHANGE.

As Organized as a Mutual Benefit Association, but Grew Until It Became Master of the Speculative System at the Stock Yards.

There are wheels within wheels in the live stock business which are but little understood by the general public. Very few people, perhaps, know anything about the wheels of the Kansas City Live Stock exchange, the existence of which will be at stake in a suit for heavy damages which will be filed within the next day or two in the circuit court.

The suit will be filed by Major Blake L. Woodson, an attorney for J. S. Sanderson, a live stock speculator, who will allege in his petition that the Traders' is an illegal organization, whose object is to limit competition and prevent him and other live stock speculators, non-members, from making a living at the business which they desire to engage in. Mr. Sanderson will ask that the organization be declared illegal and in violation of law and that he be awarded damages in the sum of $10,000. He will ask that its existence be terminated. The suit will be brought against W. A. Emery, president of the Traders' exchange, and several of the members who will be held to be individually responsible, as the organization has no corporate existence.

Major Woodson in speaking of the suit, last night said: "This suit is one which has been in contemplation for a long time. I propose to attack the existence of the Traders' exchange on the ground that it is an illegal organization, seeking to confine trade in a certain line of business to a certain favored few, and that it ought to be open to the fullest and freest competition."

"As I understand it, the Traders' is an association of speculators, or scalpers, at the stock yards. It was first organized as a mutual benefit association and the membership fee was placed at $10. There was no limit on the membership. Now, having grown to large proportions, and having as members all the men they want in the speculative business at the stock yards, they have placed the membership fee at the prohibitive sum of $500, and, in addition, have placed a limit on the membership so that no new speculators can get in. This practically excludes from that branch of the live stock business any outside persons who may desire to engage in it, and we propose to see if such an organization has any right to exist. We believe that the live stock business of Kansas City is her most important line and that it ought to be open to the fullest and freest competition."

MUCH OPIUM SEIZED.

San Francisco Chinamen Have Been Evading Uncle Sam's Revenue Regulations.

San Francisco, Feb. 27.—The largest seizure of opium ever made at the port of San Francisco was accomplished this afternoon by four special agents of the treasury. The opium is valued at $40,000, and was seized because of a violation of the custom rules, which provide that no Chinese shall import the drug. The confiscation was the result of an investigation which has been conducted for the last six weeks. The opium was found in the possession of H. P. Davidson, a Chinese, who transferred it to the real importers as soon as it passed the customs. Government officials state that the system of acting as nominal importers to aid Chinese firms has been practiced for the last ten years. The customs officials say it is improbable that either Davidson or Fong Tai will be prosecuted for the infringement of the law.

It is thought the seizure by the government of so large a quantity of opium will greatly increase the selling price of the drug in this city. The revenue laws of the United States impose a duty of $2 per pound on Chinese opium. Under a statute of February, 1887, the right to import opium is restricted to Caucasians. A treaty between the United States and China binds this government to forbid the importation of opium into American ports by Chinese agents.

Divorces Granted—Divorce Wanted.

In the circuit court yesterday, Judge Gates severed the bonds which held together two ill-matched couples. A. Ruth Highland was given a divorce from George W. Highland, and Sidney Wild from Martha Wild.

Suit for divorce was filed by Mary L. Dale against Martin L. Dale. The plaintiff alleges that her husband has deserted her.

Special Master in Chancery.

Shannon C. Douglas was yesterday appointed a special master in chancery by United States District Judge John F. Phillips to take possession in the case of Abraham M. Hyatt and Deborah W. Bright against George W. Honey and others, in which about $7,000 worth of property on Vine street is involved.

Burlington Gets Judgment.

Burlington, Kas., Feb. 27.—(Special.) In the circuit court to-day the city of Burlington took judgment against the Burlington Water Works Company for costs. The company had sued the city for $7,000, with interest from 1890, for hydrant rental. This ends as of the water works litigation outside of the federal court.

GOES ON FOREVER.

Bates County Railway Bonds Again Figure in a Case in the United States District Court.

The old and familiar suit over a railroad that never was built came to the fore in United States District Judge Phillips' court yesterday, when a motion to strike out the amended answers of Bates county to the petition of James C. Edwards was overruled. Edwards had sued Bates county for $500 with interest since April 1, 1891, on the bonds issued by Bates county for the Lexington, Chillicothe and Gulf railroad. Judge Phillips held that he could not hear the case, as it involved a sum of less than $2,000. An appeal was

WALWORTH'S LICENSE KNOCKED OUT.

The county court yesterday refused to grant the petition of C. J. Walworth for a dramshop license for 714 Walnut street. It was expected that there would be a warm fight over this license when it came up before the court, but contrary to expectations Mr. Walworth was as mild as a May morn and whenever the slightest objection was made to the validity of any signature to his petition he allowed them to be stricken off with very little protest. When the court got through striking off signers, Mr. Walworth did not have a majority left.

Who Gets the Best?

Does the housekeeper who telephones for her groceries get the best of everything? Does she get the best dozen oranges in the box, the best dozen bananas on the bunch, the best bunches of celery? Or does the housekeeper who goes down town with money in her pocketbook to buy with, and who can go to different stores and pick through the whole market, get the best? You can bet that the woman who goes after the best usually gets it, as lovely woman usually gets what she goes after. The secret of Nebraska's success is in her buying. We have men who are members of our firm, in the market all the time. Their whole time and attention are devoted to buying goods and paying for them. They know the ropes—know where to go for the best of this—the choicest of that—the handsomest of the other. They have money to pay with, and nobody gets any better than they. In fact, the buyers in America who buy goods as well as our buyers buy them can be counted on the fingers of the man who has lost both arms. Proof? The way we sell stuff proves how we buy it. The wonderful lines of Children's Suits displayed in our window at from $1.00 to $3.50 are strong proofs. The great values at $1.50, $2.50 and $3.50 are strong proofs. The grand all wool Suits for Children of 4 to 15 years are the choicest bananas on the bargain bunch. Come to clothing market to-day.
